News and Gossip of Washington and Washingtonians
Tersely Told.

Saccharimetric Normal Weight and the Specific Rotation of Dextrose!
No, it isn't a new form of lingual castigation at all. If you hear one man tell another these words, and he appears very heated in telling him them, you need not call a policeman to stop a scrap. He may be telling the man about Uncle Sam's new publication.

Yes, the Bureau of Standards, of the Department of Commerce, has just published a report, "Scientific Paper No. 28," which takes up the jaw-breaking subject.
It is a very sweet subject, is saccharine, but studied in a scientific manner it is too technical to make the mouth water—also too dry.

Post to Speak on "Farm."
Louis F. Post, Assistant Secretary of Labor, is in Philadelphia to make an address at the National Farm School. The subject of the talk will be "The Land the Lord Our God Hath Given Us."

Railway Employees to Meet.
Officers will be elected at the meeting of company section No. 4, of the Washington Railway and Electric Company tomorrow night, at which delegates who attended the convention at Atlantic City last week will report.

Care of Tubercular Children.
It is probable that the question of providing for tubercular children will be taken up at the meeting of the Board of Education, to be held Wednesday at 3:30 at the Franklin School.

Will Represent Capital at Confederate Daughters

Mrs. William Oscar Roome will represent the Southern Cross Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy of the District, at the national convention of the organization to be held in Dallas, Tex., November 8.

The election of the delegates took place at the last meeting at the residence of Mrs. Roome, 911 North Carolina avenue southeast.

Officers of the chapter include: William Oscar Roome, president; Blanche West, vice president; Albert Ford Ferguson, recording secretary; Mrs. Mina Oia Barron, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Clara Albright, treasurer.

DISTRICT MILESTONE TO BE DEDICATED

Services This Afternoon At Southern Boundary Marker.

The mile stone marking the boundary of the District at Blue Plains, known as Milestone No. 8 of the south boundary line, is to be dedicated formally as a monument this afternoon by the members of Monticello Chapter, D. A. R. Mrs. Gaius M. Brumbaugh, State regent of the District, and Fred M. Woodward, who has been active in searching out the milestones for the patriotic societies, will assist.

Blue Plains is situated just beyond Congress Heights, and an automobile bus has been engaged to carry visitors from the end of the trolley line to the scene of the ceremonies. Under the direction of Monticello Chapter a fence has been erected around the milestone, and the chapter will look after the maintenance of the plot as a public monument. Mrs. Alfred E. T. Hansmann, regent of the chapter, will preside at the exercises this afternoon, and an invitation has been extended the public to attend the ceremony.
